Argyll & Bute Local Authority

2015/16

About CashBack for Communities

CashBack for Communities is a Scottish Government programme which takes funds recovered from the proceeds of crime and invests them into free activities and programmes for young people across Scotland. Inspiring Scotland is the delivery partner for the CashBack for Communities programme, appointed in July 2012.

- CashBack invests monies seized from criminals under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 back into our communities.
- Since 2008 the Scottish Government has committed £92 million to CashBack / community initiatives, funding community activities and facilities largely, but not exclusively, for young people.
- CashBack supports all 32 Local Authorities across Scotland.
- Sporting and recreational activities / culture / mentoring and employability / community projects.
- CashBack has delivered nearly 2 million activities and opportunities for young people.
- Phase 3 of CashBack runs to end March 2017 and is focused on positive outcomes for young people.

CashBack for Communities: Aims

CashBack activities:

- Use the proceeds of crime in a positive way to expand young people's horizons and increase their opportunities to develop their interests and skills in an enjoyable, fulfilling and supportive way.
- Are open, where possible, to all children and young people, while focusing resources in those communities suffering most from antisocial behaviour and crime.
- Seek to increase levels of participation to help divert young people away from 'at risk' behaviour, and will aim to increase the positive long-term outcomes for those who take part.

£75m Proceeds of Crime funds committed from launch in 2008 to 2017

All 32 Local Authorities impacted

Nearly 2m activities and opportunities provided for young people

Key principles: Positive, Open to all, Developmental and Sustainable

Contributes to National Outcomes:

4 – ‘Our young people are successful learners, confident individuals, effective contributors and responsible citizens’

9 – ‘We live our lives free from crime, disorder and danger’

Supporting activities across:

- Culture film making, dance and music
- Sports diversionary and participatory sports activities
- Employability training, mentoring and accreditation
- Sport for Change personal development through sport
- Youth Work project funding, uniformed organisations grants
- Sports Facilities pitches, floodlights and club improvements

“The project provided me with structure and a reason to get up in the morning. I developed new social skills and built on my confidence and through the Programme I found a new sense of self-worth.”

“I have noticed a huge improvement in myself; I am determined to start a new and different challenge in my life. The CashBack Programme has really helped me on my way.”

“I’m not sure where I would be if I hadn’t discovered Twilight Basketball. It has definitely had a real positive influence in my life.”

Activity number represents the number of activities and opportunities that young people have taken advantage of as a result of CashBack funding. It should be noted that CashBack partners may have worked with some of the same young people over a number of years. Therefore the total annual activity and opportunity figures might not directly correlate to the number of individual young people who have been involved with CashBack.

Historic CashBack funding (2008 -2016)

Examples of CashBack funded activities up to 2016

The Small Grants Scheme consortium has been a beneficiary of CashBack funding in Argyll and Bute since 2008 and this has included supporting Boys Brigade, Girlguiding Scotland, Girls' Brigade, Scouts Scotland, Clubs for Young People, Cove and Kilgreggan Youth Café, and various activities across the area.

YouthLink Scotland, through the Youth Work Fund, has supported capacity of young people and youth work organisations. Examples in the Local Authority include Mid Argyll Youth Forum, Oasis4youth, Bute Youth Forum, and North Argyle Youth Forum.

Prince's Trust Development Awards have been made available to young people from the Authority to support their efforts to move into a positive destination of employment, education or training courses. These grants have been provided to support musical and IT equipment, course fees and PVG to become a youth worker.

Creative Scotland, through their CashBack for Creativity fund, has supported organisations in the area including Jigsaw (Helensburgh) Ltd, a dance group based at Dunoon Burgh Hall for young people who live in Cowal to participate in contemporary dance techniques, devising routines throughout the week working collaboratively as a group with their peers culminating in a showcase event at the end of the course.

Scottish Rugby Union runs broad participation activities in Argyle and Bute Council. This post is responsible for the delivery of the broad participation programme and Street Rugby has been delivered in the following locations: Atlantis Leisure Centre Oban, and Lochgilphead. Oban High School is part of the School of Rugby programme and involves S1 pupils who take part in up to 5 sessions per week of rugby training and classroom based sessions,

Argyll & Bute – CashBack Outcomes: Case Studies

CashBack has made a huge difference to the lives of young people. We have captured information on individual case studies for CashBack partners which demonstrate the impact delivery activities have had to those participating. These can be accessed on the CashBack website at <http://www.cashbackforcommunities.org/>

Creative Scotland – ‘Make a Scene’ Programme

The ‘Be Somebody’ programme has now come to an end. Below is a taster case study of one of the two community projects, which were completed over a 6 month programme.

The Argyll and Bute course funded through CashBack for Creativity and linked into the new Argyll and Bute Youth Arts Hub and their ‘Make a Scene’ launch event which was taking place in Oban. The course brought together young people from across the region who wouldn’t normally have the chance to meet and interact. It also included a number of students with additional needs including 21 year old N who has cerebral palsy and 18 year old T who has Down’s Syndrome. The course was run over three consecutive days. The first day was at Radio Clyde where participants were trained on recording and interview techniques and pre-production planning for day two where they went to the ‘Make a Scene’ launch in Oban and gathered content to produce their podcast. Day three was back at Radio Clyde where they spent time learning script writing as well as recording the links for the show which explored the availability and accessibility of the arts in the Argyll and Bute region.

In addition to gathering content in Oban, the young people also used the opportunity to share their learning with other young people at the event. This spread the benefit of the media training to a wider group, generating discussion in the community on the subject of the arts and participation. It also enabled participants to reflect and embed their prior learning and in the process capture relevant audio (interviews) for their podcast.

Case study – TL

18 year old T has Down's Syndrome but this in no way prevented him from taking part fully in all the activities on the course – in fact he became central to Be Somebody. All the young people integrated quickly and worked well as a production team. T already had an interest in radio as he presents a show on Island Radio with his dad - broadcasting to the on Argyll and Bute region the show is called "Father and Son".

One of T's school teachers came to the session on the Sunday at Radio Clyde and told us that T has never been so welcomed into an unfamiliar group and accepted in such a way. He said it was great to see as often at school he was left out of group activities but this environment allowed him to be part of a team and work with other people. T is determined to pursue a career in radio production with the support of his family and carers.

Education Through CashBack	Education Through CashBack (ETC) aims to enhance sports coaches, youth workers and young leaders understanding of working with young people and encouraging personal development through sport. The programme was created to ensure that those on the ground are well equipped to engage those most at risk and maximise the impact of provision. In particular ETC will nurture a deeper understanding of the developmental value of sport and physical activity when working with often challenging young people with varying needs and interests. Training, with complementary resources, will equip staff with the skills, understanding and confidence to deliver activities effectively to a range of young people in a variety of settings. Training is delivered either as a one off or at times over a series of dates for more than one module delivery. ETC has a dedicated website for information on training and booking - http://etcashback.org.uk/ . For more information, contact kylie@ssf.org.uk	Ardentinny Outdoor Centre
