About CashBack for Communities

CashBack for Communities is a Scottish Government programme which takes funds recovered from the proceeds of crime and invests them into free activities and programmes for young people across Scotland. Inspiring Scotland is the delivery partner for the CashBack for Communities programme, appointed in July 2012.

- CashBack invests monies seized from criminals under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 back into our communities.
- Since 2008 the Scottish Government has committed £92 million to CashBack / community initiatives, funding community activities and facilities largely, but not exclusively, for young people.
- CashBack supports all 32 Local Authorities across Scotland.
- Sporting and recreational activities / culture / mentoring and employability / community projects.
- CashBack has delivered nearly 2 million activities and opportunities for young people.
- Phase 3 of CashBack runs to end March 2017 and is focused on positive outcomes for young people.

CashBack for Communities: Aims

CashBack activities:

- Use the proceeds of crime in a positive way to expand young people's horizons and increase their opportunities to develop their interests and skills in an enjoyable, fulfilling and supportive way.
- Are open, where possible, to all children and young people, while focusing resources in those communities suffering most from antisocial behaviour and crime.
- Seek to increase levels of participation to help divert young people away from 'at risk' behaviour, and will aim to increase the positive long-term outcomes for those who take part.

Activity number represents the number of activities and opportunities that young people have taken advantage of as a result of CashBack funding. It should be noted that CashBack partners may have worked with some of the same young people over a number of years. Therefore the total annual activity and opportunity figures might not directly correlate to the number of individual young people who have been involved with CashBack.

Historic CashBack funding (2008 -2016)

Examples of CashBack funded activities up to 2016

The Small Grants Scheme consortium has been a beneficiary of CashBack funding in Dumfries and Galloway since 2008 and this has included supporting Boys Brigade, Girlguiding Scotland, Scouts, Girls Brigade, Clubs for Young People and Youth Club activities across the area.

YouthLink Scotland, through the Youth Work Fund, has supported capacity of young people and youth work organisations. Examples in the Local Authority include Dumfries YMCA, Youth Alive Dumfries and Galloway, and Get Hooked on Fishing.

Prince's Trust Development Awards have been used to support a number of young people in the area including funding to gain an SIA License, attend a sports coaching course and purchase equipment for an agriculture and gardens business set up.

CashBack for Creativity has funded a number of projects in the area including programmes to deliver dance activities for young people in the area.

Boxing Scotland ran various activities across the area from 2012-14 including Millenium ABC in Stranraer and Nith Valley Boxing Club in Dumfries.

The Scottish FA has run the Midnight League programme in Dumfries and Galloway have always been well supported by the Council and has operated across a number of locations across the area including Belmont, Whithorn, Minnigaff, Creetown and Kirkcudbright, Dalbeattie, Dumfries and Moffat. The SFA also works with schools to provide coaching culminating in the CashBack 7's events which approximately twenty schools in Dumfries and Galloway participated in.

Scottish Rugby Union - CashBack funding has been used to part-fund three full-time rugby club development officers at Dumfries RFC Newton Stewart RFC and Stewartry RFC. Each post is responsible for the delivery of the broad participation programme, Schools of Rugby and street rugby in the area. Maxwelltown High School has been a School of Rugby since 2011. In 2012 Dumfries Saints RFC were awarded funding from the CashBack Rugby Facilities Fund for the re-development of the artificial pitch to help accommodate the growing numbers of boys and girls playing rugby at the club.

Dumfries & Galloway – CashBack Outcomes: Case Studies

CashBack has made a huge difference to the lives of young people. We have captured information on individual case studies for CashBack partners which demonstrate the impact delivery activities have had to those participating. These can be accessed on the CashBack website at <http://www.cashbackforcommunities.org/>

Michael Matheson MSP, Cabinet Secretary for Justice, visited Maxwelltown High School in Dumfries finding out more from teachers and pupils about the Schools of Rugby initiative. There are currently 30 Schools of Rugby across Scotland, benefitting around 700 pupils from S1 - S3. CashBack for Communities funds this programme which aims to make rugby a central part of school life and develop valuable life skills and improve academic achievement. Scottish Rugby's Head of Domestic Rugby Support, Neil Carrie, said: "When the opportunity arose to offer a Schools of Rugby visit to Mr Matheson, Maxwelltown was at the top of my list. CashBack is vital to the development of young people in this area and across Scotland. What has also impressed me about Maxwelltown is their outlook on sport and their desire to contribute effectively to the life skills and health of their pupils." T, a pupil who has benefitted from the programme, said: "Rugby has given me motivation to get up in the morning and to go to school. I've gained so much confidence. It's brilliant." The School of Rugby hasn't only been beneficial for the school game in Dumfries, local club Dumfries Saints have also seen more players coming along from Maxwelltown High School in recent years.

R was involved in community activities and various CashBack initiatives including Street Football, Midnight League and Volunteer Development. Financial issues restrict him training / signing for an under 16s league football team, however his continued commitment over his teenage years to Summerhill Community Centre sports and activities, in particular football, was inspirational. There is huge peer group pressure amongst his age group and anti-social behaviour issues within his housing estate. The football programme helped Ryan to distance himself from engaging in these issues, yet still manages to be seen as 'one of the boys'. He unknowingly has been the trigger that has encouraged and developed his age group teams coming together for training and entering tournaments throughout the season. He has become a referee for the junior (under 10s) street football activities (Thursday evenings 6-7pm), linesman, organises strips, water bottles, notices for his local team and is the main organiser for gathering names / PR / Training times and contacting everyone when entering 'under 16s' '7 a sides' tournaments. R had been a shy young person, however his involvement with the project has developed his confidence and self-esteem. His ability to focus and complete tasks through his football world has created new opportunities and interests for R, whereby he has also become a youth committee member at Summerhill Community Centre and now volunteers with many other centre activities.

Spring Fling CIC	The project consists of two creative industries projects supporting young people to work with professional artists to learn practically and theoretically about traditional, heritage and digital making and the relevance and importance of these to a rural area. Modern Makers will be a programme for young people to work intensively over a period of up to a year with a professional maker to learn a craft and make a collection or body of contemporary functional products to exhibition standard. Digital Fabrication Lab is a pilot digital fabrication lab in Dumfries town centre which will test the market by running a programme of bi-monthly workshops and training for young people, artists and the general public. Working with Sleeping Giants and The Stove Network (Young Stove) the project will offer access to harder to reach young people who could really benefit through creative interaction.	Digital Fabrications Lab in Dumfries Town, Unit 10 (Loreburne), High Street, Dumfries, DG1 2BD Modern Makers: A range of locations for workshops across Dumfries and Galloway.
Wigtown Festival Company	Building on the existing young people's festival programme during the annual 10-day event which takes place September/October, and the successful RYT's first full scale 'script to performance' project 87 Miles, Wigtown Festival Company (WFC) will develop a programme of year-round activities for young people including: seasonal arts programmes, peer to peer learning, literature and theatre outreach across the region, youth arts residential experiences, literature development aimed at young people (e.g. highlighting national opportunities and providing new opportunities for young writers), and young people's internships. This already-established network and reputation will enable us to develop activities to reach new young people across Wigtownshire and to further develop activities throughout the rest of the region, particularly in more rural and deprived areas by taking arts activity to them	Various

The Whithorn Trust	The "DigTV" project will allow young people in Whithorn and surrounding areas to engage with an exciting archaeological dig happening near their community via participation in a digital media project. Archaeologists already know that this Iron Age site is the largest to be discovered in Scotland and will attract national attention. The project will also allow the wider community and world to follow the progress of the Dig online at whithorndigtv. Professional film makers working at the Whithorn Trust production base (to be created for this project) and on the nearby live excavation site aim to challenge young people to create a community online television station, entitled Dig TV, which will film and capture news about a nationally important archaeological dig as it happens, interviewing archaeologists, live streaming the digging to the Whithorn Trust, and creating all PR, through social and traditional media, for the project. Young people will be trained by professionals both in front of and behind the camera; they will learn to use special equipment, such as drones, and will create their own narrative of the site. They will ultimately create a final film, to be screened in front of the local public and archaeologists.	45-47 George St, Whithorn, DG8 8NS
